DIS goes Vis: The Settlement Breakfast

Settlement in Arbitration - An (Un)happy Marriage?

There are numerous ways to promote settlement in arbitration. The DIS is one of the very few institutions that stipulates - in Article 26 of its Rules - an obligation for arbitrators to "seek to encourage an amicable settlement of the dispute or of individual disputed issues". The ways in which this is done and how they differ from the Arb-Med-Arb process underlying this year's case have been the focus of an extensive report by the DIS. At this event, these techniques will be explored by leading practitioners and contributors to the report.

We kindly invite you to join us for a breakfast and a vivid discussion about early and efficient methods to resolve international commercial disputes. A great opportunity to learn more about the DIS toolbox for dispute resolution!
